ASSOCIATION OF PROFESSIONAL LANDSCAPE DESIGNERS® ANNOUNCES 2007 CONFERENCE IN CALIFORNIA

The Association of Professional Landscape Designers (APLD) will be hosting their annual conference in Pasadena, California from March 5 -11, 2007. APLD's conference is a weeklong program of inspiring lectures and enlightening garden tours. Garden tours will focus on private residential gardens of outstanding quality in west Los Angeles, Pasadena, Brentwood, Malibu, Santa Barbara and other areas, and will feature several superior public gardens interpreted by their principal designers. Lectures will be given by recognized experts in the field, including such notables as Nancy Goslee Power, Page Dickey, Bernard Trainor, Michael Glassman and John Greenlee.

The week will begin with pre-conference of garden tours, consist of a 3-day main conference, and conclude with a 2-day post-conference. Attendees will have the option of registering for the entire week or specific days.

The Association of Professional Landscape Designers is an international organization representing over 1,100 members in the United States, Canada, Great Britain and other countries. Its goal is to advance landscape design as an independent profession and to promote the recognition of landscape designers as highly qualified, dedicated professionals. APLD was founded in 1989 and is headquartered in Harrisburg, PA. Additional information on conference registration, membership and sponsorship opportunities can be found at www.apld.org or by calling 717-238-9780.
